RAISED TO LIFE

Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live,

John 11:25

If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you.

Romans 8:11

We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.

Romans 6:4

Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

John 11:1

It was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was ill.

John 11:2

So the sisters sent to him, saying, “Lord, he whom you love is ill.”

John 11:3

But when Jesus heard it he said, "This illness does not lead to death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

John 11:4

Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So, when he heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

John 11:5-6

Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother.

John 11:17-18

John 11:19

So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary remained seated in the house.

John 11:20

Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you.”

John 11:21-22

Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

John 11:25

John 11:26

She said to him, “Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world.”

John 11:27

Now when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

John 11:32

When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in his spirit and greatly troubled.

John 11:33

And he said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.”

John 11:34

Jesus wept. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man also have kept this man from dying?"

John 11:35-37

Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it.

John 11:38

Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, by this time there will be an odor, for he has been dead four days.”

John 11:39

Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?”

John 11:40

So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, “Father, I thank you that you have heard me

John 11:41

I knew that you always hear me, but I said this on account of the people standing around, that they may believe that you sent me."

John 11:42

When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out.”

John 11:43

The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

John 11:44

Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live.

John 14:19
