

THE WAITING ROOM

Fact I

The measure of how much we actually value something is determined by...

- What are we willing to actually DO,
- Our willingness to discover and learn “best practices”

Fact II

Our 'land' (our culture, our country, our community, our family, our spheres of influence, even our lives) is becoming increasingly impacted by the kingdom of darkness.

Questions

What is the condition of our
'land'?

What are we willing to actually
DO?

How willing are we to discover and learn God's "best practices"?

Consider 2nd Chronicles 7:14

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land. (NIV)

IF my people who are called by my name will...

- humble themselves, and
- pray and
- seek my face and
- turn from their wicked ways

Then.....

- I will
- hear from heaven and
- will forgive their sin and
- heal their land.

Questions

What is the condition of your
'land'?

What are you willing to actually
DO?

How willing are you to discover and learn God's "best practices"?